

Walking map R.S.O.L. (Van Hetenstraat 59) from the trainstation Deventer (1914): 20 minutes, 1.6 km

You walk along the abandoned, old cemetery (1): a freely accessible National Monument from 1831, with monumental trees and special plants. The cemetery contains grave monuments that give account of the historical Deventer textile and biscuit industry, painting, the former Dutch East Indies and Multatuli. Further on you will pass the quiet, green, catholic cemetery (2) at the Ceintuurbaan from 1869 and, on the turn Spijkerpad, the former Bunker of the Home Guard (3) from 1952, the period of the Cold War. Finally, you will also pass the old playground Tuindorp (4) from 1945.
